We have been very busy here at PAH putting smiles on the faces of children touched by cancer. We held our annual butterfly release at Generations. The butterfly release honors the children in our program and it was beautiful tribute.

September is Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. We send love to the warriors still fighting and remember the angels we have lost.

We are working on painting our office to match the brightness we bring to the children touched by cancer. Check out our display window!

Volunteers have started on October birthday boxes and getting Halloween mailing ready. We have had an outpouring of kindness, volunteers, and groups for which we are so grateful! If you would like to volunteer or come in as a group please call or email.

After Halloween, we will start getting ready for our Christmas box packing. Our Wishlist for this holiday season is on page two. If you can host a toy drive please let us know!

As always, a huge thank you to our supporters, we couldn't do this without you!
